

I do not think your proposed new ownership rules serve the public interest. I urge you not to approve them on Monday, but to hold public hearings.